

The National Cherry
Blossom Festival runs
March 25
- April 9

Ranger-Led Cherry Blossom Talks/Walks

Set against the dramatic backdrop of thousands of flowering cherry trees, National Park Service rangers will conduct walking tours along Washington, D.C.'s Tidal Basin.

Join a park ranger for a leisurely stroll while learning about these magnificent trees and the symbolism and cultural significance of this city's National Cherry Blossom Festival.

WHEN: (Daily) March 25 - April 09, 2006

WHERE: Meet at the Tidal Basin near the Franklin Delano Roosevelt (FDR) Memorial entrance. Signs near the FDR Bookstore will direct you.

TIMES: 10:00 a.m., 11:30 a.m., 1:00 p.m., 2:30 p.m., 4:00 p.m. & 5:30 p.m.

DURATION: Length of program time and trip distance will vary. Two options will be offered each time slot.

For more information, please visit our web site at www.nps.gov/nacc/cherry or call 202.619.7222 or 202.426.6841.

The NPS encourages visitors to use the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (METRO). The Smithsonian Station, at 12th street and Jefferson Drive SW, is the closest station to the festivities. Information and directions are available at the National Cherry Blossom Welcome Center, located on the southwest corner of the Washington Monument grounds (Independence Avenue and 17th Street, SW).

Please,
leave the blossoms
for others to enjoy.